

Transmission Interconnection Options

The project would interconnect with an existing transmission line either on- or off-site. Interconnections could be shared with other nearby renewable energy projects.

- 345kV Mead-Liberty line (owned and operated by Western)
- 500kV Mead-Phoenix line (operated by Western)
- 500kV Moenkopi-El Dorado line (owned and operated by Arizona Public Service)

